The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 10, to Saturday January 14, 1748.

St. James's, January 14.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Grove and Samuel Greatheed, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, their Recorder. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of your ancient City of Coventry, in Council aſſembled, do, with the ſincereſt Joy, congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to theſe Kingdoms; and with the greateſt Gratitude we return our moſt hearty Thanks to your Majeſty for reſcuing Europe from Slavery, and ſo honourably ending a juſt and neceſſary War.

Your Majeſty's mild and glorious Reign, and your conſtant Regard for the Liberties and Happineſs of your Subjects, have always, with the utmoſt Affection, endeared your Majeſty's Perſon to us; and it would create in us great Concern and Abhorrence, to find any Remains of Ingratitude in this moſt happy Iſland; being fully convinc'd, that if the higheſt Degree of Goodneſs in a Prince can make a People happy, all your Majeſty's Subjects have the greateſt Reaſon to rejoice, and are under the ſtrongeſt Obligations to Loyalty.

May your Majeſty long continue to live the Ornament and Honour of Kings, the great and faithful Friend and Preſerver of the Liberties of Europe, and the kind Father of all your People; and may Britons, in all future Generations, find and deſerve that Liberty and Happineſs we now enjoy, under a Succeſſion of Princes of your illuſtrious Family.

Given under our common Seal the 28th Day of December, 1748.

(Price Four-pence.)

The following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Glaſgow, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Montroſe, Chancellor of the Univerſity of Glaſgow: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Profeſſors of the Univerſity of Glaſgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and other Members of the Univerſity of Glaſgow, humbly beg Leave, with the greateſt Sincerity, to join in the National Congratulations on your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Kingdoms, and to expreſs our moſt grateful Thanks to your Majeſty, for putting a happy Period to the Calamities which always accompany War however neceſſarily undertaken.

The ineſtimable Bleſſings of Peace, reſtored to Europe by your Majeſty's Influence, muſt be deeply felt by all Ranks of People; we rejoice with our Fellow Subjects in the Poſſeſſion of them, and we are particularly ſenſible that Learning, and every Liberal Art muſt flouriſh under your Majeſty's paternal Care, and indulgent Government.

In this happy Situation, your faithful Subjects have nothing farther to wiſh, but that it may pleaſe Almighty God to prolong your Majeſty's Life and Reign, undiſturbed for the future by foreign Wars or rebellious Inſurrections; that you may continue long to ſecure the Liberties of your People, while they, under your Majeſty's gracious Protection, cultivate the Arts, and enjoy the Fruits of that Peace which you have ſo wiſely and happily eſtabliſhed.

We farther beg Leave, with all Humility, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we feel ourſelves bound by the united Principles of Duty and Gratitude, to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to inſpire the Youth

Youth under our Care with the warmeſt Senſe of Liberty and Love to their Country; the moſt ardent Zeal for our happy Conſtitution, and the firmeſt Adherence to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Royal Houſe, as being, under God, the ſureſt Guardians of our Religion and Liberties, and every thing dear to us as Men and Chriſtians.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Citizens of the City and Liberty of Peterborough, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Fitzwilliams, Cuſtos Rotulorum of the City and Liberty of Peterborough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Citizens of the City and Liberty of Peterborough.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Citizens of the City and Liberty of Peterborough, fully ſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt auſpicious Government, beg leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe and happy Arrival into theſe your Britiſh Dominions.

Mov'd with the Groans of diſtreſſed Nations, your generous Pity call'd you hence to put a Stop to the ſad Calamities of a wide waſting War, which had well nigh ruin'd and depopulated many flouriſhing States and Kingdoms; and Heaven, which knew the upright Intentions of your Royal Breaſt, has bleſs'd your pious Endeavours with Succeſs.

The ſteady Purſuit of wiſe Counſels, has in a ſhort Time made you ſurmount all the Difficulties and Obſtacles in the Way of Peace, and to reconcile the jarring Intereſts of contending Nations, which in other Hands, and under weaker Influence, muſt have been the Labour of many Years to accompliſh and bring about.

Your Majeſty engaged in this juſt and neceſſary War, to vindicate the Rights of your injur'd Subjects, and to reſtore and ſecure the Balance of Power, and the Liberties of Europe; theſe ſalutary Ends once obtained, you lent your healing Hand to ſtaunch her bleeding Wounds, and fix her Safety and Repoſe upon a firm and ſolid Foundation.

The particular Regard your Majeſty has always ſhewn to the true Intereſts of your People, and the Care you have taken to ſecure their juſt Rights, as confirm'd to them by this and former Treaties, calls for our moſt grateful Acknowledgments. Commerce, we hope, will now again revive and flouriſh, and all the happy Arts of Peace enrich and adorn theſe envied Kingdoms.

May your Majeſty long enjoy the Fruits of all your Labours, in the due Returns of Obedience and Loyalty from all your Subjects; may your Reign be proſperous, and never more diſtur'd either by foreign Wars, or domeſtick Commotions; may you long live to bleſs theſe Nations, and when full of Years and Glory Heaven ſhall call you hence, may your Memory ſurvive in the amiable Character of the moſt gracious and merciful Prince that ever fill'd a Throne, or bleſs'd a People; and may there never be wanting Princes of your illuſtrious Houſe, the true Heirs of your Crown, and the exact Imitators of all your Royal Virtues, to reign over us through all future Ages.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, Capital Burgeſſes, and others, of the Borough of Derby, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Duncannon and John Stanhope, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, Capital Burgeſſes, and others of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Derby in the County of Derby.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's late happy Arrival into your Britiſh Dominions from Abroad, now excites us, from an unfeigned Joy and Thankfulneſs, to approach your Royal Perſon; and more particularly, as your Majeſty's Return hither to your Loyal Subjects, is attended with ſuch ſtrong Aſſurances, (through your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Policy) of Transferring to the People of this Nation, an happy and ſolid Peace.

'Tis now through God's Providence and Protection of your Majeſty's Perſon and Royal Family, that we find the gloomy Horrors of an unnatural Rebellion, and national Confuſion, which ſo lately exhibited themſelves in this Kingdom, (and more than ordinarily in this Place) and ſo deſtructive of the Comforts we enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, effectually diſſipated and removed.

Your Majeſty and Royal Family may always depend on our inviolable Attachments to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which have ſo ſubſtantially enabled us to enjoy thoſe invaluable Bleſſings of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; berties; as likewiſe in the preſent Inſtance, have pointed out to us the Proſpect and pleaſing Hopes of partaking of the Fruits of an happy and laſting Peace.

Given under our Hands at the Borough of Derby aforeſaid, the Firſt Day of December, in the Twenty-ſecond Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty eight.
